Icebreaker

- Your name
- Your department
- Were you a student employee during college?
- Answer one of the following questions:

What was your first job?

What motivates you to work hard?

What did you want to be when you were little?

What is one word that describes your supervision style?

What was your favorite subject in school?

Work+ Supervisor Onboarding: Learning Objectives

Identify and articulate the purpose, opportunities, and benefits of Work+.

Examine the NACE competencies and how they can be applied to improve the working learner experience through Work+.

Acquire tools and strategies to engage working learners and integrate NACE core competencies, preparing them with career-ready skills.

WhyWork+

Identify and articulate the purpose, opportunities, and benefits of Work+.

What is a working learner?

Working learners are students who are both studying and gaining work experience.

The challenge

Working learners are more likely to experience equity, skills, and economic mobility gaps.

Spring 2025 Snapshot

3,720 students are currently employed by UCF as of January 21, 2025.

33% of UCF working learners are low-income

Demographics of UCF working learners:

- 11% are Black/African American
- 55% are Female
- 30% are Hispanic/Latino
- 21% are first-generation

The working learner experience is an equity issue.

The opportunity

Enhance the existing on-campus work experience to bridge the skills and articulation gap, without requiring students to seek separate opportunities.

<50%

of college graduates succeed in finding meaningful work.

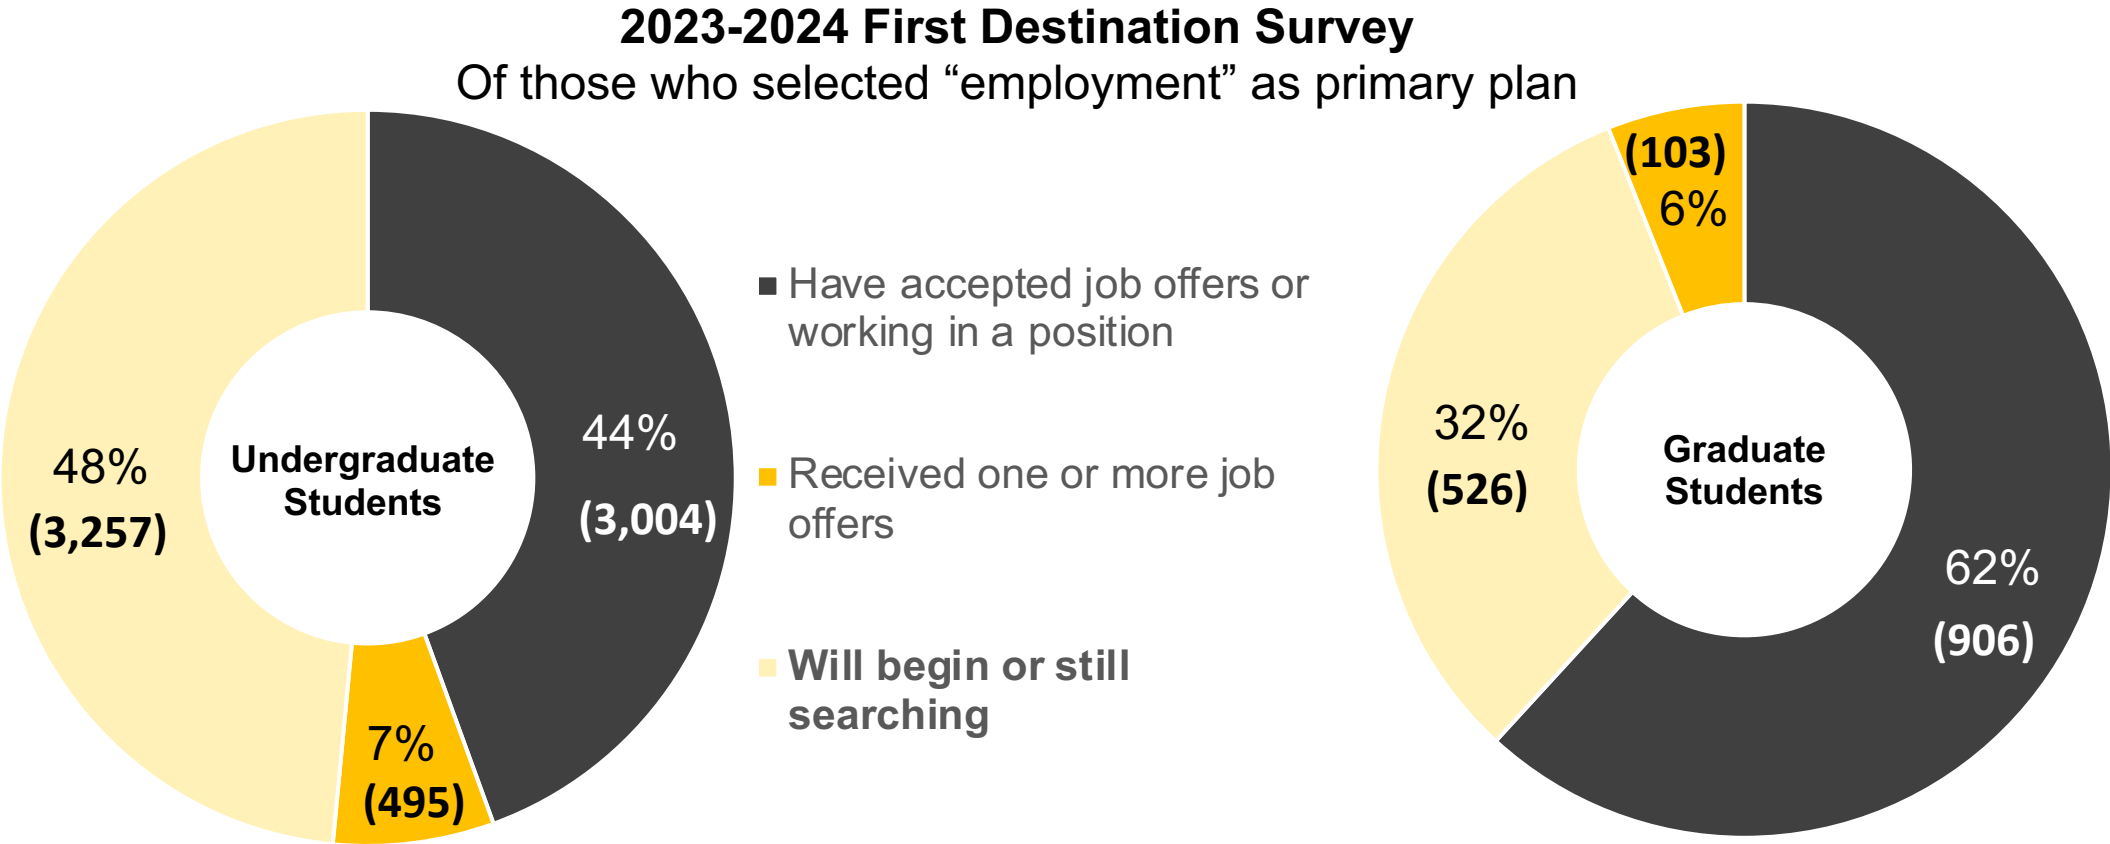

11%

of business leaders strongly agree that college graduates have the skills employers need.

The working learner experience is an opportunity to address the skills and economic mobility issue for college graduates.

The opportunity

Student work presents the ideal platform for student professional and personal growth through an intentional and reflective approach.

Data Source: UCF Operational Excellence and Assessment Support (OEAS)
First Destination Survey, 2023-2024 academic year, undergraduate v. graduate students

If college is meant to prepare students to achieve financial viability, find meaning in their human relationships and their work, and contribute to the common good, higher education needs to figure out which experiences during a student's education are most likely to lead to these life-transformative outcomes. And it needs to make these experiences available to all students at scale.

Coalition for Transformative Education, Gallup

The Goal of Work+

The goal of Work+ is to transform student employment into a meaningful co-curricular experience by:

- Boosting career readiness
- Strengthening supervisor-learner relationships through mentorship
- Helping learners connect transferable skills to post-graduation goals

Work+

SKILLS FOR TODAY, SUCCESS FOR TOMORROW

How does Work+ work?

Work+ is designed for those supervising working learners – students who are both studying and gaining work experience.

Skill development and assessment

Included in working learner day-to-day work.

Supervisor support

Additional support to ensure the best experience for you and your working learners.

Culture + Community

Value in opportunities to connect with peers.

The Benefit

Work+ shifts the mindset from student employment being transactional to intentional and reflective.

- College graduates who had a mentor were more than twice as likely to be engaged at work and have a higher sense of well-being.
- Mentored graduates are 20% more likely to feel well-prepared for their first job compared to non-mentored graduates (82% vs. 62%).
- Students with mentorship have a 15% higher likelihood of graduation and retention, compared to 10% for their non-mentored peers.
